Amazing experience!

Hi Sandy,

Thanks so much for the session, it was just what I needed and am feeling many positive shifts as a result. I will definitely be reaching out again when I need a tune up or more clearing of energy.

Have a wonderful day and thanks again!! 🙏

Readings

Sandy has a wonderful energy about her even through the phone. She was so patient with all of my questions and explaining things further so that I understood. I appreciated her passion when we started going through my astrological reading and her little tidbits of information along the way. I can't wait to work with Sandy again in the future and to meet her one day when this pandemic storm has passed.

Bamboo emergency

I had a very badly locked up hip and within 30 min of Sandy's painful, yet most effective bamboo massage treatment, serious relief was achieved!

Note: the pain experienced was because of the locked up hip NOT because of Sandy's expertise.

Once again her services have saved me much grief, and all the while addressed my preference for healthy alternatives to prescribed drugs.

THANK YOU SANDY!!

Chakra balancing raindrop massage

It was a very 'clearing experience' is how I'd describe my session. I did have a headache after and through the night and neck and shoulder discomfort which I think was from being in the face down position still for so long as I've had this happen before in a general massage. It was wonderful to tuck my head under the covers that night and breathe in all the great oil scents ! Definitely will do it again.

Personal Ceremony

Sandy guided me through a personal sacred ceremony. It was a very empowering and transformative experience. She is extremely knowledgeable and brings a variety of different teachings into these sessions. We worked with cards, crystals, Reiki, herbs and visualization and created a magnificent experience. I can highly recommend a personal ceremony with Sandy for anyone on the spiritual path, or looking to create shifts and changes in their life.

Still the BEST

Sandy has never disappointed me with any of her services, and every time I leave her business I am equipped with more information and education that enables me to extend the benefits of her treatment(s).

She has helped me with my ski fall injuries, thyroid sluggishness, weight issues, fitness skill honing, allergies, and a plethora of other minor concerns.

Do not hesitate to see her for whatever concern you may personally have.

I look forward to each and every appointment time I have with her!!

A very positive, happy person who goes out of her way to share her energy!!
